ISIT A PARALYZER? The following associated press dis patch, dated Washington, August 9th, is liable to create consternation in Arizona if the bearing of the order as issued by the department, be as broad as the one outlined in the telegram. There is hardly a foot of arable mesa or bottom land in the Territory that cannot be in rigated by the water storage system. and there is hardly a mountain range within Arizona's broad domain that does not, to a greater or less extent, offer facilities for water storage. It is because of this that the blow will fall the more heavily on the Territory if the following order be enforced.

"Acting Land Commissioner Stone to day issued an important circular to all Registers and Receivers respecting the irrigation survey. After quoting the law he says: The object sought to be accomplished by the foregoing provision is unmistakable. The water source and arid lands that may be irrigated by a system of national irrigation are not reserved, to be hereafter, when redeem ed to agriculture, transferred to the peo ple of the Territories in which they situated, for homestead, by act of cogress, and common justice requires that they should be faithfully preserved for these declared purposes. The statute these declared purposes. The statut provides that all lands which may her after be designated or selected by th geological survey as sites for reservoirs ditches or canals for irrigating purpo ses, and all lands made susceptibl rigation by such reservoirs, ditches o canals, are, since the passage of the said act, absolutely reserved for sale as the property of the United States, and shall not be subject after the passage of the act, to entry, settlement or occupation until further provided by law, or the President by proclamation, may oper said lands to settlement. Neither indi viduals or corporations have the righ to make filings upon any lands thus re served, nor can they be permitted to obtain control of lakes and streams that are susceptible of uses for irrigating purposes. You will therefore immed ately cancel all filings made since Octo ber 2, 1888, on such sites for reservoirs ditches or canals for irrigating purpose and all lands that may be susceptible irrigation by such reservoirs, ditches or canals, whether made by individuals or corporations, and you will hereafter re-ceive no filings upon any such lands. This order you will carry into effect without delay. Lands once withdrawn from public en try, are virtually dead to the public for years, as may be instanced by the Algodones land grant below Yuma. This land was withdrawn from public settle ment because of said supposed grant The grant was proven fraudulent years ago, but the land has never reverted to the public domain, nor must other lands when once withdrawn, expect other disposition. If the public lands of the territory are to be tied up and settlement debarred therefrom until again opened by the authorities, Arizona will expe rience a disastrous set-back. But until we know more than is contained in the telegram in question, the subject is hard ly open for discussion. If, however, it will be proven true by subsequent infor mation, it will be neither wise nor prudential to advise the Senate Committee to visit us, for if we understand the ruling aright, all the public lands in Arizo na will be practically withdrawn from settlement. However we await mor information on the subject before be coming too badly scared. $

A GENTLEMAN Writing to the CrizEN on invitation to give his views agains statehood says that the constitutions convention should not be held.-Herald

The Herald continues to wilfully mis rapresent the Cirizen on every question that comes up for discussion, and the above extract is a sample of its veracity The only invitation ever extended by this paper, was the printed circular sen out asking for expressions pro and con on the proposition to hold a constitution al convention now, and push Arizon for statehood. No one was ever invited by this paper, or by any one in its behalf, to give his views against the convention. We have received and printer replies to our circular from democratand republicans alike, for and against the convention; besides many of both political parties have been interviewed on the subject, and everything received has been published. No one has been barred out and no views have been sup pressed. The unanimity of opinion that is being expressed in opposition to the convention, is evidently spoiling the little jack-in-the-box combination entered into by a couple of the Phenix papers and a few disgruntled republicans to hand over the territory, bag and baggage to the democrats, provided their chief is allowed to don one of the senatorial caps. The CITIZEN again renews its invitation to the people, democrats, republicans and mugwumps, to send in their views on the constitutional convention question be they f r or against it. The columns of this paper are open for a full and fair discussion. Will our fault-finding contemporary do as much?

As will be noted in our telegraphic columns, David S. Terry, the noted ex-Judge, has gone to his long rest. He was shot dead this morning at Lathrop Cal., by Deputy U. S. Marshal Nagle It would seem that Nagle and Justice Field, of the Supreme Court of San Francisco, were at breakfast in the depot hotel in that city. Soon after, Terry and his wife entered, and the latter re tiring for a few moments, her husband stepped up to Judge Field and gently slapped him across the face. Evidently Field did not resent the insult, but his co upanion Npgle drew a revolver and shot Terry through the heart. For a long time there had been bad blood between the two judges, the result of a decision rendered by Field in the celebrated Sharon case, Terry's wife being at that time Sarah Althea Hill, the assumed wife of Sharon. Terry was a man of many faults, and at whose door was laid. possibly, more than he deserved, but he met his death this morning in a manner that will astonish few.

THE Gazette attacks Judge Barnes and says he "advised citizens of Arizona not to comply with a Territorial not a word of truth in it. Its vicious malice is apparent. In an article for this paper discussing railroad enterpris es, the Judge said more was to be gained to the Territory by developing its resources through north and south railroads, than through constitutional conventions. This, as a mere illustration, and this was all there was of it. To and its gang.

Meyer Zulick signed, was the repeal of the test oath against polygamy, the teaching or encouraging it, and for that act the Mormons have bound them selves and their votes to Zulick and his Apache, and, as far as the Democrats are concerned, Graham county; in fact, they constitute the balance of power in the Territory, and under present laws would be the controlling influence

The sentiment of the people from one end to the other, is almost unanimously against statehood. The entire influence in favor of it, consists of Zulick, the Cochise colony and a few disappointed Republican office-seekers, concentrated in and represented by the Phenix Gazette Such we know to be the facts.

THE CITIZEN is not in the habit, of ushing to the defense of Judge Barnes but the Gazotte of Tuesday willfully misepresents his sentiments as published in the Crrizen a few days previously, and as said opinions failed to chim in with those of the Christy-Gazette combination, his expressions are distorted beyond recognition, as may be evidenced by the following from the Gazette:

The lifteenth legislature on-cted a law authorizing the calling of a constitutional convention. This law is now on our statute books and is a part of the statutes of the territory; yet in the face of this fact, we see sensible men gravely discussing the propriety of en-forcing this law. Judge Barnes, who oc cupies the responsible position of federal judge, rushes into print for the avowed purpose of telling the law-abiding citiens of Arizona not to comply with a territorial statute.

We are not surprised at Wolfley's mouthpiece and its ridiculous "interviews," wherein are the mouthings of men who are totally ignorant of what they are iscussing, but for a district judge to ake upon himself the task of teaching lisobedience to the laws of the Territo ry, is one of those peculiarities never witnessed beyond the confines of dem ago; s:n and humbuggery.

We reproduce the foregoing in order to show what little reliance can be placed on the utterances of the Gazette. What Judge Barnes did say in his wellwritten article on "Railroad Possibillities" was:

"Much more is to be gained in pushag these enterprises than in constitu tional conventions, the cost of which would be ample subsidy for such a road." Nothing more, nothing less, did Judge Barnes say in relation to the convention. Let the people judge between sim and the Gazette, and also between those who have intelligently expressed opinions against the proposed convention. On the one hand they will have an intelligent expression of opinion against the proposed farcical convention and on the other hand they will have a paper pledged to support a combination that would betray both parties in order to carry out their own little

WE call the attention of our readers to a communication on the 4th page of this issue by W. R. W. It gives the key note to the clamor for the proposed Constitutional Convention by the Herald and Gazette, together with their despicaole on slaughts on the characters of rivate citizens who disagree with them on this very important proposition. If is betrue, as our correspondent i stimates, that the entire Republican party, with the exception of one Senator, is to be turned over to the Democracy, and all its great issues and interests to be subserved to gratify the little political ambition of one man, it is time the Republicans were notified of this fact. The rumor is current on the streets in Tucson that the proposition implied by "M. R. W." was actually made and can be proven. If it be true we must confes both surprise and sorrow, neither of which, however, lessens the great wrong peen attempted. We do not intend to stop here, but we purpose to go to bottom facts and ring the charges on the party or parties guilty of attempting such nefarious combination. We expect a howl of virtuous indignation from the Herald and Gazette, but their master committed them to his little arrangeent, and they must not whimper at

The Daily Report, of San Francisco has issued a "Circulation Souvenir," which contains statements that are bound to attract the attention of the reading and observant public. For the month of January, 1889, the average daily circulation of the Report is given at 21,640; for July the average daily cir culation is placed at 25,500, an actual gain of almost 1000 per month. The Daily Report is a good paper, and although a little off in politics, is in our estimation, worthily entitled to the confidence and respect it commands. We will be pleased to learn that the next six months have been as fortunate in statute." The Gazette knew there was the way of increasing circulation as the last passed six have been

TRUCKEE, Cal., August 13.- The most destructive fire that has occurred for years, started from a defective flue in the house of C. B. Dullen, this morning. Heroic efforts were made by the citizens but a fierce wind was blowing and the inflamable nature of the buildings gave the flames full sway for several hours. Volunteers poured in from ev ry side, and with the limited appliance on hand, did good work, though the flames spread n building to building as though the ses were made of kindling wood. The business portion of the city was saved through the efforts of the lighters, and the direction in which the wind was blowing. Residences, churches and schools suffering in its stead. San Francisco, August 14.—Ex-Judge David S. Terry was shot and killed by Deputy U. S. Marshal David Nagle, at breakfast table in the Depot Hotel at Lathrop, this morning. The shooting was caused by an assult made by Terry upon Justice Field, of the U. S. St preme Court. During the progress of a trial in which Terry and his wife were involved the latter became so abusive that she was ordered to be removed from the Court. When a deputy attempte to earry out the order, she became is volved in a personal quarrel with that official, and Judge Terry interfered drawing a dagger from his vest. He was disarmed, and both Terry and his wife were adjudged in contempt and com tempt and committed to jail. In the meantime Judge Field went to Wash ington to resume his duties on the Bench. Returning six weeks ago, news paper articles were printed, intimating at it would be dangerous for Justice Field and Terry to meet personally, as it was thought the latter might insult the former, wpile it was also recognized that Field would be equally ready for an atack from Terry, knowing it could only result fatally to one or the other. In view of the latter's record as Judge, Terry had evidently intended to provok Justice Field, and draw his weapon be fore the Judge could in turn draw his. Of course this is not known, as Deputy Nagle, who sat opposite Field, prevented

this by firing, resulting in the instant death of Terry.

LATHROP, Aug. 14.—Upon arrival of the Southern overland train here this morning at 7:20 o'clock, U. S. Supremo Judge Field and Deputy U. S. Marsha David Nagle, walked into the depot din-ing room for breakfast, and sat down side by side. Soon after Judge Terry and wife came in also, and proceeded another table. Mrs. Terry, after she recognized Justice Field, did not sit down, but returned to the train for som unknown purpose. As soon as she had left the dining room, Judge Terry ap-proached Justice Field, stooped over him and gently slapped his face once. At this junction Deputy Marshal Nagle arose from his seat and shot Judge Terry, apparently through the heart. As he was falling the marshal shot again but missed him the ball going through the floor. Both shots were fired in quic succession. Judge Terry never uttered a sound after being shot. He had hardfallen when Mrs. Terry rushed to the side of the body and threw herself upon it. Then resulted a scene of the wild est excitement. People rushed from the dining room and others rushed in. During this time Justice Field and Deputy Marshal returned to the sleeping car when they were securely locked within. At times, Mrs. Terry would call upon the good citizens to arrest and detain hem there, and not let them escape Before the train pulled out, Constable Walker entered the sleeper and was carried away on the train. He said to the spectators that he knew his duty and would perform it. During the time he train was standing at the depot Mrs. Terry was running about wildly, al ternately from the body of her husban to the sleeper, demanding admittance that she might slap Justice Fields and egging that he and Nagle be detained and have their examination here. Pre-vious to the entrance of Constable Walker into the sleeper, Sheriff Pureis and another officer had already taken charge of Deputy U. S. Marshal Nagle.

San Francisco, August 14.- The announement that Judge David S. Terry had been shot and killed in the railway depot at Lathrop this morning, as the result of an attempt to provoke a personal altercation with Justice Stephen J. Field, of the U. S. supreme court, caused extraordinary excitement in this city. The possibility of an enonntar between Terry and Justice Field had been recognized ever since the imprisonment of Terry for contempt of court, and owing to the known temper of the man who killed U. S. Senator Sharon, while prosecuting her claim against the Sharon estate. This brought him into a resentful attitude towards Judge Field who last year rendered a eision in the U.S. Circuit Court in this city, denying her claim to be the wife of Sharon. Mrs. Terry created a scene in court during the reading of the decision, charging Justice Field with being corrupt, and as she refused to renain quiet, Justice Field directed tha she be removed from the court room. After the shooting, Deputy U. S. Mar shal Nagle backed up against the wall of the dining room and warned every one not to arrest him, saying he was a U official in discharge his duty. There was no semblance of an attempt to molest him at any time. Constable Walker took Deputy Nagle from the train at ton, where he now is in init. STOCKTON, August 14 .- The Coroner arrived here at 12:40 to day with Terry's body in a box covered with a white in the express car accompanied by several friends of the deceased. When the oody was taken off she followed and rode with it in the express wagon to the morgue. She was greatly distressed and said it was a cowardly murder of an unarmed man. Deputy Marshal Nagle was brought here in a buggy by Con-stable Walker, of Lathrop at 10:30. Nagle refused to be interviewed. He said: 'I am a Deputy U. S. morning was the result of a contemplat-ed plan or a suddenly conceived idea. It was publicly known yesterday that they were to leave for San Francisco to-day. PORTLAND, Or., August 14.—The shooting of Judge Terry caused a sensation here when it became known throughout the city. Many old Californians now living here said "it served him right. It is just retribution." A few days since the statement was made that Terry had threatened to kill Judge Matthews Dealy, the U. S. District Judge of Oregon, in case he came to San Francisco to try the case against himself and wife, the said case arising from disturbances in the United States court room in San Francisco some months ago. Judge Dealy said te-day that he had been directed by Judge

Lorenzo Sawyer to try Terry and his wife on those indictments. Had Terry not been killed he would have gone to San Francisco very soon, but now he will await further instructions. Judge Dealy decided the Sharon case against Terry in 1885. LATHROP, August 14.—No weapon any description was found on Terry's body. Public opinion here is largely in Terry's favor, and many say that the affair was a brutal murder and duty was too li erally performed San Francisco, August 14.-No of an inquest in the Terry case has been received up to this time. SAN FRANCISCO August 14. Best & Belch, 3 95 | Crocker 8 Chollar, 1 45 Con. Va.... Confidence ... 6 Gould & C. Hale & Nor. . . 3 10 | Locomotive ..

The Duke of Wellington, who always slept on a camp bedstead, had a maxim that when a man turned in bed it was time to turn out; and here it may be remarked that great soldiers appear to be peculiarly constituted in their power to summon sleep at will. Possibly this may be due to the habits of discipline which they have learned. They say to their ins, "Go to sleep," and at once the word of command is obeyed.

WITH HEADS TO THE NORTH. We are all familiar with the stereo typed advice in cases of this kind to "turn the pillow," to "think of something else," or to imagine and count a number of mountain sheep going through a gate. Many a time and oft has the too wakeful brain worker attempted to carry these and similar prescriptions into practice, usually with results disproportionate to the efforts involved.

It may be said without much exaggera tion that the man who can first imagine a flock of sheep, then a half open gate, and then can force his hypothetical shee to go through one by one without crow ing or dodging or turning tail, is fit for treason, stratagems or writing the sub-limest poetry. He is no ordinary man, and it is for ordinary individuals that the saving prescription is required.

Among prescriptions of a more or less sensible kind which have been at various times propounded and actually put into use for inducing sleep may be mentioned the hop pillow, in which our forefathers had considerable faith, the narcotic essential oil which produces the hop scent being supposed to be exceedingly sopo-The hop pillow was used by George III nabitually when that monarch suffered from insomnia. Then S. A. Ellis long ago announced as a grand discovery to he Scottish Curative Mesmeric association that sleep was all a matter of which way one's head points. In a certain direction the electricity of the earth, which is supposed to flow between the poles, passes along the body, and so tends to the enjoyment of repose. Persons wishing to avoid sleepless nights must therefore, Mr. Ellis advised, always sleep south by north, with their heads pointing in their latter direction, and they must most religiously avoid attempt-ing to slumber if their bed lies east and

Let us imagine also a country house where the gentlemen all retired to bed about 12 o'clock, the ladies having departed to rest long before. What a rude awakening would ensue for the latter when they were suddenly roused by hear ne horrible rumblings as of thunder in the rooms on every side, and above them They would think it was an earthquake without doubt: whereas, as a mere mat ter of fact, it would be only that each guest was simultaneously attempting to hift his four poster into consonance with the teachings of electrical science.

A PROFOUND SECRET There was, moreover, a London gentle an who years ago really believed he and found an absolutely certain prescrip ion for banishing wakefulness, and h was willing to impart his knowledge to others for a handsome fee on the express condition that the information should 'go no further." When the sleep practitioner died on of his patients informed an expectant world that the erand secret was simply this: A person lying in bed and attemp ting to sleep usually breathes through his nostrils, and the breath so emitted is, in cold weather, quite visible.

All that has to be done is for the sublect to think of his own breathing, to magine that he sees every breath that ssues from his nostrils, and in a moment or two he will fall into a refreshing lumber. There may be some virtue in this prescription, though common sense would be inclined to suppose that the mere bother of imagining anything whatever would be so tiresome as to excite the brain and banish sleep much farther off than ever.

Some persons, however, testified to the omplete efficacy of the breathing plan. Alfred Smee, the author of "Elements of Electro-Biology," also attempted to solve the puzzle why sleep, when much needed, is often altogether denied. He referred the whole matter to the region of "the olo-dynamic circuit," but the practical prescription was to wet the top of the ead with cold water, and he asserts that he has thus often obtained for a sufferer rest when every other mean have failed.

All these spirited endeavors are worthy of much praise; but perhaps the best prescription for avoiding sleepless night or parts of nights is not to take heavy suppers, to go in for exercise and not to st up late, exciting the brain.-Londo

Failing Health. Ten years ago my health began to fail.

I was troubled with a distressing Cough, Night Sweats, Weakness, and Nervousness. I tried various remedies prescribed by different physicians, but became so weak that I could not go up stairs without stopping to rest. My friends recommended me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which I did, and I am now as healthy and strong as ever. — Mrs. E. L. Williams, Alexandria, Mina.

E. L. Williams, Alexandria, Minn.

I have used Ayer's Sarsaparilla, in my family, for Scrofula, and know, if it is taken faithfully, that it will thoroughly cradicate this terrible disease. I have also prescribed it as a tonic, as well as an alterative, and must say that I honestly believe it to be the best blood medicine ever compounded.—W. F. Fowler, M. D., D. D.
